On November 7, 2013 the “Program of Intellectual and Spiritual Development of Youth”, organized by “Intellectual and Educational Studio” at the International Charitable Foundation of the Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, has been launched. By the invitation of the International Charitable Foundation of the Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia, 5 young representatives of the Armenian Diocese in Georgia - Liza Torosyan, Ani Kushyan, Laura Mzikyan, Mariam Sarkisova and Valentina Galechyan participate in the program.

Within the framework of the program the participants will listen to lectures on the following topics: Christian Psychology, Archeology and History, Old and New Testament, Christian Art and Symbols, Traditional Religions, and Professional Relations.
On completion of the course, listeners will receive a certificate. “

Intellectual and Educational Studio” at the International Charitable Foundation of the Catholicos-Patriarch of All Georgia was founded in 2011 with support from an international organization “World Vision Georgia”.