

On December 28, 2014, The Pontifical Encyclical of His Holiness Karekin II, Supreme Patriarch and Catholicos of All Armenians, was read during the Divine Liturgy in the churches of the Armenian Diocese in Georgia, on the occasion of the approaching 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.

The leader of the Armenian Diocese in Georgia, His Grace Bishop Vazgen Mirzakhanyan brought the Pontifical Encyclical on the Altar and the parish priest Fr. Manuk Zeinalyan read it to all the believers during the Sunday Divine Liturgy in Tbilisi's Saint Echmiadzin Church.

His Grace presented to all the parishioners the main programs foreseen by the community as part of the 100th anniversary of the Armenian Genocide.

The leader of the Diocese congratulated everyone on coming Christmas and New Year.

The Pontifical Encyclical of His Holiness Karekin II, Supreme Patriarch and Catholicos of All Armenians, was read in all the Armenian Diocese's churches in Samtskhe-Javakheti, Kvemo Kartli and Batumi.

